

Dear Habibians

Zafar writes to you every Friday a note on a different subject which we call Friday Note. I thought this Friday I will write to you.

I am so pleased to address Habibian entrepreneurs who have achieved such significant landmarks in their field at a young age.

I wish to invite you to share your success stories with other Habibians. Your experiences and achievements can help to motivate other Habibians to one day emulate successful entrepreneurs like you.

After receiving your success stories we will plan a date and time for a gathering. We are excited to hear your success stories.

Kind regards,

Saeed Allawala
